ORDER

Upon consideration of the parties' Joint Motion to Enlarge Scheduling Order, there being no opposition thereto, and good cause having been shown, it is this 4TH day of August, 2001,

ORDERED, that the parties' Joint Motion to Enlarge Scheduling Order be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED; and it is further ORDERED, that the parties will be required to identify their respective expert witnesses who will testify on issues related to damages and disclose the general area on which each expert will testify in accordance with the Scheduling Order currently in place, but will be permitted to defer the preparation of expert reports and the taking of expert depositions for those experts until either (1) seventy five (75) days after the Court rules on any dispositive motion filed in the case, or (2) seventy five (75) days after the parties

indicate in their status report to the Court that no dispositive motions will be filed in the case and it is further ORDERED, that discovery of other experts who will not testify on damages issues will proceed in accordance with the current Scheduling Order.
